To whom it may concern:

I am enclosing my 2002 Uniform Business Report along with my check for $150.00. This is the only correspondence received from your office within this calendar year. When I did not receive the renewal form this past Spring I assumed that the statute had changed and that the filing date was no longer in June. When I did receive the enclosed form, I only noticed that it said to "File Now! Due by September 13, 2002". Much to my chagrin, when I wrote my check today I realized that I should have received a prior notice as I had in years past. I do not know why I never received your original request as I certainly would have complied in a timely manner. I am asking that you accept my check for $150 and maintain the active status of my corporation. I would appreciate your understanding in this matter.

Very truly yours,

Elayne Gidney
Director- Boca Graphics Center, Inc.
