INDEMNIFICATION

Indemnity. The corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or contemplated action, suit or proceedings, whather civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer or committee member of the corporation, against expenses (including attorneys' fees and appellate attorneys' fees), judgments, finas and emounts paid in sattlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceedings, unless (s) a court of competent jurisdiction determines, after all available appeals have been exhausted or not pursued by the proposed indemnitee, that he did not set in good feith, nor in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the corporation, and, with respect to any priminal action or proceeding, that he had reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful, and (b) such court further specifically determines that indemnification should be denied. The termination of any action, suit or proceedings by judgment, order, settlement, conviction or upon a plea of noic contenders or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good feith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful. It is the intent of the membership, by the adoption of this provision, to provide the most comprehensive indemnification possible to their officers, directors and committee members as permitted by Florida law.

Expanses. To the extent that a director, officer or committee member of the corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any ection, suit or proceeding referred to in Article IX above, or in defense of any claim, Issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' foca and appallate attorneys' foos) actually and ressonably incurred by him in connection therewith.

Advances. Expenses incurred in defending a civil or oriminal action, suit or proceeding shall be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of aughaction, suit or proceedings upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the affected director, officer or committee member to rapay such amount unless it shall ultimately be determined that he is entitled to be indemnified by the corporation as authorized in this Article IX, or as otherwise permitted by law.

Miscellaneous. The indemnification provided by this Article shall not be dearned. exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of members or otherwise, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer or committee member, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs and personal representatives of such person.

insurance. The corporation shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer or committee member against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether the corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article or not. Notwithstanding anything in this Article IX to the contrary, the provisions herein provided for indemnification shall be applicable only to the extent insurance coverage does not apply or is insufficient.

Amendment. Anything to the contrary herein notwithstending, the provisions of this Article IX may not be amended without the prior written consent of all persons whose interest would be adversely effected by such amendment.

ARTICLE X

SPECIAL PROVISIONS

No contract or other transaction between the corporation and any other corporation or entity, in the absence of fraud, shall be affected or invalidated by the fact that any one or more of the directors of the corporation is or are interested in, or are directors or officers of such other corporation or principal of such other entity, and any director or directors, individually or jointly, may be party or parties to, or may be interested in any such contract or transaction of the corporation, or in which the corporation is interested, and no contract, act or transaction, in the absence of fraud, shall be affected or invalidated by the fact that any director or directors of the corporation is a party or are parties to or interested in such contract, act or transaction, or in any way connected with such person or persons, firm or corporation, and each and every person who may become a director of the corporation is hereby relieved from any liability that might otherwise exist from this contracting with the corporation for the benefit of himself or any firm, association, corporation or entity in which he may be interested.
