RE: Advanced Windows Glass & Doors Corp.
 1998 Annual Report

Dear Sir or Madam:

Enclosed please find the Application for Reinstatement for the above-referenced corporation and check no. 1236 in the amount of $150.00. In December, 1997, the corporation relocated to another address. At that time, a change of address was done with the U.S. Postal Service; however, some of our mail was either received extremely late or it was never received at all. Unfortunately, the 1998 Corporation Annual Report was never received.

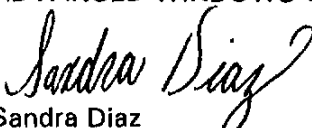

I called your office about two months ago and advised of same. I gave them the new address and was told that another form would be sent to me. Please be advised that I never received it. Therefore, on July 23, 1998, I spoke with SLOGAN from your office and explained the situation. He advised me that the change of address could not be done over the telephone, but asked me for the new address to send me another form. On July 30, 1998, I received the form sent by SLOGAN.

SLOGAN requested that the change of address be done on the form he was sending to me. He also asked that I write this letter enclosing the Application for Reinstatement explaining what had happened.

Should you have any questions, please call me at the above-referenced number.

Sincerely,

ADVANCED WINDOWS GLASS & DOORS

Sandra Diaz
Vice President
