Dear Sir or Madam:

I received this week a second notice to file the 1999 Annual Report for my corporation. I was surprised to have received this notice because I initially filed this report on April 19, 1999 and sent my check # 674 in the amount of $150.00. I checked with my bank today and this check # is still outstanding.

I assume that my report was lost in the mail as April 15th had just passed and the Post Office was inundated with tax returns. I concluded that this is a case of lost mail. Please find attached the copy of my initial report and the copy of the check I sent with it. I have voided this check and sent in replacement my check #702. Please let me know if this copy will suffice. All my information is the same as prior years.

I do sincerely apologize for this misunderstanding and hope this never happens again. Since I in good faith filed and mailed the return timely, I formally request that this report be accepted as it was initially intended, a corporation in compliance. As a tax accountant, I understand the importance of filing this report as I assist all my clients in compliance with your office. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at 556-2073.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Genevieve Settle Harris
President
