Re: Corporate annual report

Dear Michelle:

As per our telephone conversation Thursday, September 23, 1999 the reason our report for Winter Park Investment Properties, Inc. has not been filed for the current year is that we made a name change from Turner Investment Properties, Inc. to Winter Park Investment Properties, in September, 1998. The business address was also changed, but somehow never made it into the states official records.

The annual reports for the two new corporations, which we incorporated in September 1998, Kegan Funding, Inc. and Japaco, Inc. were received in January 1999 and filed shortly thereafter. We never received the report application for Winter Park Investment Properties, Inc.

In consideration of the fact our address was never changed by the state please wave the $400 late fee, as well as make sure our address is changed.

Thankyou in advance for all your help.

Sincerely,

Corey Turner
President
