ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF
NORTH FLORIDA MASSAGE THERAPY, INC.

FILED
SECRETARY OF STATE
DIVISION OF CORPORATIONS
96 JUL 15 PM 12:49

I, the undersigned subscriber to these Articles of Incorporation, being a natural person competent to contract, hereby execute this document for the purpose of creating a corporation under the laws of the State of Florida. It is my intention that this corporation shall be a subchapter S corporation in accordance with the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended.

ARTICLE I

The name of this corporation shall be:

NORTH FLORIDA MASSAGE THERAPY, INC.

The principal place of business of this corporation shall be 1331 Lafayette Street, Tallahassee, Florida, 32301, but it shall have the power to transact business in any other place or places both within and without the State of Florida and throughout the world. The mailing address of the corporation shall be the same. The annual meeting of the stockholders shall be held at the place designated by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE II

The general nature of the business to be transacted and carried on by this corporation and its objects and purposes are to conduct any and all lawful business consistent with the provisions hereinafter set out or provided and it shall have all the powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida upon business corporations as fully and to the same extent as natural persons might or could do in all parts of the world, namely:

To establish, carry on, conduct, maintain and otherwise operate a corporation which provides, massage therapy services, childbirth assistance services, doula services, infant massage services, and childbirth education services, and to do such and everything necessary, convenient, suitable or proper for the accomplishment of any of the purposes or for the attainment of any one or more of the objects herein enumerated, or which shall at any time appear conducive to, or expedient for, the protection or for the benefit of this corporation.

The foregoing and following provisions shall be construed as objects in furtherance and not in limitation of the general powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida and the enumeration in these Articles of specific powers and objects shall not be held to limit or restrict in any manner the powers of this corporation; but this corporation may do all and everything necessary, suitable or proper for the accomplishment of any purpose or object, either along or in association with other corporations, firms or individuals, to the same extent and as full as individuals might or could do as principals, agents, contractors or otherwise.

ARTICLE III

The maximum number of shares of stock that the corporation is authorized to have outstanding at any one time is One Thousand (1,000) shares of a one dollar ($1.00) par value of common stock.

The Board of Directors, may establish and determine various or separate classes or categories of stock which shall be set forth in the by-laws of this corporation.

The consideration to be paid for each share shall be fixed by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE IV

At each meeting of the shareholders of this corporation, the presence in person or by proxy of the holders of a majority in number of the issued and outstanding shares of stock shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business. The affirmative vote of a majority represented at the meeting shall be necessary to adopt any resolution, carry any motion, or take any corporate action which requires the vote of the shareholders. As to the election of the Board of Directors, rights shall be cumulative.

ARTICLE V

The corporation shall have perpetual existence, unless sooner voluntarily dissolved according to law.

ARTICLE VI

The number of directors of this corporation shall not be less than one (1), or more than five (5), none of whom need be stockholders of the corporation, said number to be fixed from time to time by resolution of the stockholders of this corporation at their annual meeting prior to the election of directors, or at any special meeting of the shareholders called for such purpose. They shall be elected by a majority of the stockholders present and participating at the annual meetings of the corporation to be held as prescribed by the by-laws and shall hold office after their election until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified.

The original by-laws of this corporation, if any, shall be made, prepared and adopted by the Board of Directors of the corporation by a majority vote thereof. Thereafter the said by-laws may be amended by the Board of Directors at any regular meeting of said Board of Directors or at any special meeting for which said meeting is called by a majority of the directors present. The Board of Directors shall also have the power from time to time to direct and determine the use and disposition of any net profit or earned surplus of the corporation (in excess of the capital stock paid in); and the corporation may ' and through its Board of Directors, purchase, sell and trade in the bonds or other obligations of this corporation or in the shares of its capital stock; but if shares of the corporation's capital stock have been purchased and subsequently there is a reduction in the manner provided by law of the corporation's capital stock, then, to the extent that such shares are not reissued at the time of the reduction, they shall be deemed retired in an amount not exceeding the amount of the reduction and shall not be reissued, except as provided by law.

The Board of Directors shall elect officers of this corporation, who shall consist of the President, who shall be a director, and a Secretary, and such other further officers as may be provided by resolution of the Board of Directors. None of these officers are required to be a stockholder of the corporation. All officers, unless elected to fill a vacancy, shall hold office after their election until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified, unless it is provided by the by-laws that they shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board of Directors. The duties of all officers elected by the Board of Directors shall be prescribed by the by-laws or resolution of the Board of Directors.

No contract or other transaction between the corporation and any other corporation shall be affected or invalidated by the fact that any one or more of the directors of this corporation is, or are, interested in, or is, a director or officer, or are directors or officers, of such other corporation and may be a party or parties to, or may be interested in, any contract or transaction of this corporation or in which the corporation is interested; and no contract, act or transaction of this corporation with any person or persons, firms or corporations shall be affected or invalidated by the fact that any director, or directors, of this corporation is a party, or are parties, to, or interested in, such contract, act or transaction of the corporation or in which the corporation is interested; and no contract, act or transaction of this corporation with any person or persons, firms or corporations shall be affected or invalidated by the fact that any director, or directors, of this corporation is a party, or are parties, to, or interested in, such contract, act or transaction or in any way connected with such person or persons, firms or associations, and each and every person who may become a director of this corporation is hereby relieved from any liability that might otherwise exist, from contracting with the corporation for the benefit of himself or the firm or corporation to which he may be otherwise indebted.

ARTICLE VII

The corporation shall have the power to grant to the stockholders of record at the time of issuance of any additional stock beyond the originally authorized maximum number of One Thousand (1,000) shares hereinbefore provided for, full preemptive rights in the issuance of all new stock, in that such new stock shall be first offered to such registered stockholders for sale at the "stated" or fixed value thereof before there shall be an offer to sell said new stock to persons other than said stockholders. The terms and other details of such offer, including the time of its acceptance and the manner of payment, shall be determined by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VIII

The corporation shall have the power to include in its by-laws any regulatory or restrictive provisions relating to the proposed sale, transfer or other disposition of any of its outstanding stock by any of its stockholders or in the event of death of any of its stockholders. The manner and form, as well as all relevant terms, conditions and details hereof shall not affect the rights of third parties without actual knowledge thereof, unless such provision shall be plainly written upon the certificate evidencing the ownership of said stock.

ARTICLE IX

The name and post office address of the Director who shall serve as the first Director of the Board of Directors of the corporation and who shall hold office until successor(s) are elected or appointed and have qualified, is as follows:

Sandra W. Kowalchuk
3341 Lucky Debonair Trail
Tallahassee, Florida 32308

ARTICLE X

Dean C. Kowalchuk is designated as the corporation's registered agent and agent to accept service of process within Florida at 1331 East Lafayette Street, Tallahassee, Florida 32301.

ARTICLE XI

The amount of capital with which the corporation shall begin business is Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00).

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I, the undersigned subscriber, above-named as the incorporator of NORTH FLORIDA MASSAGE THERAPY, INC., have hereunto set my hand and seal this 8th day of July, 1996.
