To Whom It May Concern:

RE: Annual Report

Our company was incorporated in July 1996.

The first annual report that we received we filled out and returned January 3, 1997. Recently we received a "second notice" informing us that we had not filed as required and now we faced a filing fee of $550.00. I personally contacted your branch and indicated that we had filed on January 3, 1997. The check (#2025) was for $165.00 and was dated 1/3/97. We were told to provide the canceled check and return it to your branch. After much work we were unable to find the canceled check but could find all checks up to check #2025 and all checks issued after this check. Again I called and was told that the report had been misplaced or lost somewhere between the post office and your branch. I was told to explain what had happened and to remit another check for $165.00 which we have done.

I apologize for the problems but we had operated in good faith that this had been taken care of.

Thank you for your understanding in this matter.

Sincerely,

Michael Hickmott
President
