RE: Incorporation of the Florida Livery Association

Dear Ms. Eldridge,

We spoke on the telephone today. To refresh your memory, earlier this year the Central Florida Transportation Association, Inc. was re incorporated. The original papers were filed in 1992 along with a check for the filing fee. Apparently, the Division of Corporation deposited the check (copy attached) but did not file the incorporation.

Upon discovering this, we sent in reservations for two names: the Central Florida Transportation Association, Inc, which has now been incorporated, and the Florida Livery Association.

When I re incorporated the CFTA this year we sent an additional filing fee along with a letter asking what to do about the fee we paid in 1992. In our telephone conversations back then you advised me that when the FLA is incorporated to remind you so it could be done at no cost (the amount paid in 1992 would be credited for the new filing).

Attached are the article for the FLA filing. If you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact me directly at (407) 699-1501. Could you please notify us that the FLA incorporation has been filed? Thank you for your assistance in this matter. Best wishes for continued success.

Sincerely,

RICK GONZALEZ
President
