To Whom It May Concern,

I, Marcia Thomas have not received the first profit corporation annual report for 1997. On July 14, 1997 I received the second report which requires a late fee of $550.00. I am fully aware of the severity and importance of having all these documents and reports in and paid on time. I understand the need for a late fee imposed on delinquent accounts. But I want you to reconsider penalizing me, for the fact that I never received the first notice. I apologize and sincerely hope you can understand that mailed documentation sometimes does not arrive on time or in this case ever. I enclosed a check for $165.00 for the initial payment and charge which you were expecting due on June 30, 1997.

Thank You,

Marcia Thomas
