To Whom This May Concern:

When I received the notice for a filing fee of $550.00 I was surprised by the amount. I thought the filing fee was $150.00. Then I read "second notice" and realized I was being penalized. We never received the first notice. This is not the first time we have not received mail sent to this address. Also, we receive mail addressed to "44th Place" that is not ours, (we are "44th Court") which leads me to believe the notice was misdelivered to another address. I, as well as several of my neighbors have contacted the Post Office in the past concerning this.

Please accept the enclosed check for $150.00. We have never been late before and apologize for any inconvenience in sending this check to you at this time. I will contact the Post Office again concerning this matter and hopefully it will make a difference.

Thank you,

Lydia Forrest
