To Whom It May Concern:

I received the enclosed form UBR for year 2003 and I will verify that I did not receive any previous report. We have constantly had this problem with mail and last year, we changed our address for all "non-junk" mail to the above address with the hope that we would not experience non-receipt of important mail such as yours. I apologize for the inconvenience that we caused, but we have no control of mail delivery and our past UBR records indicate that we have made timely filings, so I ask for your consideration in waiving any penalty and accept the enclosed check for $158.75 as full payment for the 2003 filing. I assure you that this oversight will not occur again as I have implemented scheduled due dates for State & Federal filings.

Again, I ask your cooperation and look forward to a satisfactory reply.
