Dear Sirs:

We are a small one person company - and I realized that I had not received , or filed, any paperwork to renew my Corporate name with the state. When I called, I was told that the deadline had passed. I had not received the necessary paperwork at any time prior. I was told I could write a letter of explanation regarding this, and hopefully, you would grant me consideration. This is what I am asking for. The late fee would be a very big financial burden to me, and I assure you I would have filed this paper quickly and on time, had I received it.

I would greatly appreciate any consideration to this one time request.

Sincerely,

Lonnie Herman
