1. If the fact of such common directorship, officership or financial interest is disclosed or known to the board or committee, and the board or committee approves such contract or transaction by vote sufficient for such purpose without counting the vote or votes of such interested director or directors; or

2. If such common directorship, officership or financial interest is disclosed or known to the shareholders entitled to vote thereon, and such contract or transaction is approved by vote of the shareholders; or

3. If the contract or transaction is fair and reasonable as to the corporation at the time it is approved by the board, a committee or the shareholders.

Severance and Termination of Employment

If any officer, director, stockholder, agent or employee of this corporation who has been rendering professional medical services to the public becomes legally disqualified to render such professional services within this state or accepts employment that places restrictions or limitations upon his continued rendering of such professional services, then, in any such event, such person's office and/or employment with and/or financial interest in this corporation shall cease forthwith, subject, however, to the provisions of Article XV dealing with "Amendments". Should any amendment be effected which changes the nature and purpose of this corporation so that the restrictions of Florida Statute 621 do not apply, then the restriction of this Article shall not thereafter apply; provided, however, that until such amendment is effected, such person shall render no professional services, shall hold no office, shall not serve on the Board of this corporation, and shall have no financial interest in this corporation except to receive payment for any stock owned and any other amounts that are lawfully due and owing by the corporation.

ARTICLE XV
Amendments

- A. These Articles of Incorporation may be amended in the manner provided by law.

B. In the event the ownership of shares of this corporation shall be in any person, trust, corporation, estate or partnership who is not qualified to own such shares under the provisions of Chapter 621, Florida Statutes, and there has been no voluntary transfer of stock contrary to Article VII, or to law, the Board of Directors and shareholders shall have the power to amend these Articles of Incorporation in the manner and method prescribed in subparagraph A of this Article to effect a change in the nature and purpose of the business authorized by these Articles of Incorporation so that this corporation shall have the power to conduct any business authorized by Chapter 607, Florida Statutes. If there is a vacancy on the Board of Directors at or after the occurrence of the event referred to in this subparagraph, that vacancy shall be filled by the remaining Board of Directors until this amendment is complete and effective, or until such ownership of shares no longer exists. No stockholder shall be ineligible to vote on any such amendment merely because he is an ineligible shareholder under Florida Statute 621; but he shall have no other voting right.

ARTICLE XVI

If any shareholder of this corporation be required to terminate his financial interest in this corporation because of the application of Article XIV or the application of Chapter 621, Florida Statutes and should these Articles not be amended as provided in Article XV, the financial interest of such shareholder shall terminate immediately and automatically except to receive payment for such stock in this corporation as may be owned by him, and any other amounts that are lawfully due and owing to him by the corporation; and such shares of stock shall not be entitled to dividends, or stock rights of any kind. Such stock shall be forthwith transferred, sold, purchased, pledged or redeemed at such price or value and under such terms as shall be authorized or set forth in the bylaws or Shareholders' Agreement, if any, and if not, by mutual agreement or, if no such agreement can be reached, then by arbitration.

ARTICLE XVII

Bylaws of this corporation may be adopted, amended, or repealed by either the Board of Directors or by the Stockholders, except as otherwise provided in the Bylaws.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned, being the incorporator certifies to the truth of the facts herein stated, this 2nd day of August, 1996.
