ARTICLE V

General Provisions

Section 1: Quorum. It shall be always necessary to constitute a quorum at any stockholders or Board of Directors meeting. Quorum shall be owners of a majority of the stock entitled to vote being present in person or by proxy for purposes of stockholder meetings. A quorum for the transaction of business by the Board of Directors shall consist of not less than a majority of the Board of Directors at any meeting of such directors.

Section 2: Voting Rights. Except as otherwise provided by law, the entire voting power for the election of Directors and for all other purposes shall be vested exclusively in the holders of the outstanding Common Shares.

Section 3: Limitations. The Board of Directors or a majority of the Stockholders shall have the power, after the first meeting of stockholders, to amend, alter or change, repeal or add to the By-Laws for the regulation of the business and conduct of the affairs of the corporation and to make provision governing the issuance of stock certificates to replace lost or destroyed stock certificates; always providing however, that all such By-Laws, rules and regulations as shall be made by the Stockholders or the Directors shall be subordinate only to these Articles of Incorporation, the Laws of the United States and the Laws of the State of Florida.

Section 4: No contract or other transaction between the corporation and any other corporation shall be affected or invalidated by the fact that any one or more of the Directors of this corporation is, or are interested in, or is a director or officer or are directors or officers of such other corporation and any director or directors individually or jointly, may be a party or parties to, or may be interested in, any contract or transaction of this corporation, or in which this corporation is interested; and no contract, act, or transaction of this corporation with any person or persons, firm or corporation, shall be affected or invalidated by the fact that any director or directors of this corporation is a party or are parties to, or interested in, such contract, act or transaction, or in any way connected with such person or persons, firm, or corporation, and each and every person who may become a director of this corporation is hereby relieved from any liability that might otherwise exist from contracting with the corporation for the benefit of himself or any firm, association or corporation in which he may be in anywise interested.

Section 5: The corporation shall indemnify any and all persons who may serve or who have served at any time as directors or officers, or who at the request of the Board of Directors of the corporation may serve or at any time have served as Directors or Officers of another corporation in which the corporation at such time owned or may own shares of stock or of which it was or may be a creditor, and their respective heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, against any and all expenses, including amounts paid upon judgments, counsel fees, and amounts paid in settlement (before or after suit is commenced), actually and necessarily incurred by such persons in connection with the defense or settlement of any claim, action, suit or proceeding in which they, or any of them, are made parties, or a party, or which may be asserted against them or any of them, by reason of being or having been directors or officers or as director or officer of the corporation, or of such other corporation, except in relation to matters as to which any such director or officer or former director or officer or person shall be judged in any action, suit, or proceeding to be liable for his own negligence or misconduct in the performance of duty. Such indemnification shall be in addition to any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled under any law, by-law agreement, vote of stockholders, or otherwise.

Section 6: Any Officer or Director of this corporation may be removed at any time either with or without cause upon the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the stock of the corporation at that time.

Section 7: Any Officer of this corporation may be removed at any time either with or without cause by a majority of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VI
