22 July 1997

Dear Sirs:

I am returning the "second notice" 1997 annual report duly signed. However, although this form indicates a second notice, I never actually received the first notice. I believe there must have been a mistake with the address or else it may have been lost in the post, however, I enquired at the telephone number stated on the front sheet of this document about what to do in this case. I was advised by the gentleman who took my call to inform you of this situation by letter and include the cheque for filing for $165.00 which would have been the amount due at first notice.

I appreciate your understanding of this unfortunate situation, and please rest assured that had I received the first document, it would have been returned and paid immediately, and being the first year of incorporation of the company, I had no knowledge of when this document was supposed to arrive.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if any further information is required.

I remain, sincerely yours,

SARAH CONNOR
