Re: Anser, Inc. & Anser Thermal Technologies, Inc. - Revocation of Dissolution

Dear Doug:

This office represents Anser, Inc., and Anser Thermal Technologies, Florida profit corporations.

On November 13, 2000, Articles of Dissolution of both Anser, Inc., and Anser Thermal Technologies, Inc., were filed with the Secretary of State. These Articles of Dissolution were dated November 6, 2000, reflected an authorization date for dissolution of November 4, 2000, and were signed by a Gene Nail who purported to be the President and Secretary of both corporations.

Please be advised that this action was unauthorized and illegal. Mr. Nail is neither the President nor any Officer or Director of either Anser, Inc., or Anser Thermal Technologies, Inc. In addition, the action was purportedly taken at a shareholder's meeting for which no proper notice was given and reflects action taken by dissident minority shareholders of both corporations.

The vast majority of the shareholders for both corporations do not wish that either corporation be dissolved and need to immediately reinstate both corporations to keep them active and current.

Following action taken by the majority of the shareholders of Anser, Inc., and Anser Thermal Technologies, Inc., the corporations have authorized the Secretary of both corporations to execute Articles of Revocation of Dissolution, which are enclosed. The enclosures include:
