Re: 2029 Harrison Street, Inc.

Dear Ms. Brumbley:

My understanding from our legal counsel is that you advised that the State will consider waiver of the late fee in this one instance due to our past and continuing post office problems with the delivery of our mail. We never received the renewal of the Annual Report or any notice of the dissolution of the corporation and respectfully request waiver of any penalty fees. Please be assured that in the future we will file our Annual Report on a timely basis and would very much appreciate your consideration at this time of the waiver of penalties due to the above noted circumstances. Accordingly, enclosed herein is a check in the amount of $165.00 in payment of the filing fee for the 1997 Annual Report together with a completed and signed 1997 Annual Report.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Very truly yours,

2029 HARRISON STREET, INC.
