Dear Administrator:

Please accept this as full payment of our initial 1998 Corporate filing fee. I just received a second notice in the mail yesterday but never received the initial notification. There is no reason we would not make payment of the filing fee. I am a new and struggling corporation and it would be fiscally irresponsible and a serious financial burden to subject this company to such a penalty fee.

Thank you for your consideration. Rather than rely on the US mail we will be sure to mark the filing deadline date and contact your office if we do not receive a form.

Sincerely,
