RE: GOCOM INT'L INC
Doc.# P96000070826

Gentlemen:

Three times prior to the May 31, 1999 deadline for filing, my client called your toll free number, went through the menu, and waited for a form, which never came.

Finally, in desperation, he by-passed the menu, and spoke to a real live person, who did take his request, and mailed him the form. This persons name was "Shawkes" Unfortunately, it was then June 15th.

My client is enclosing a check to the Division of Corporations, in the amount of $ 150.00 for his corporate filing fee. We do not feel that we should be penalized for something that we had no control over. It is our conclusion that the forms were sent to a prior resident agent/officer. This should not have happened as the names were all changed correctly on last years return, and should have been corrected by your office.

We respectfully request that you honor this request, as the client not only had no control over the situation, but was not aware of other avenues he might have persued, other than that idiotic menu. You would be utterly amazed at how "technology" turns some people off. Your consideration of this request will be greatly appreciated.
