To Sec. of State,

6/21/00

I moved my residence about 9 months ago and the people who moved in were throwing away my mail for quite some time. I spoke to the Post office and several months later I noticed I wasn't receiving my mail still. I changed my address card again but due to they say, a glitch in the system, I still wasn't receiving my mail. I notified all my creditors about the address change but unfortunately some of them were not notified because it wasn't something I was receiving every month like a credit card statement. I truly apologize for not notifying you about my move but I had gotten divorced unfortunately. I am truly sorry and hope you understand. I just started getting my mail on a regular basis about 2 weeks ago. The mail was piled up in Miami. Yours was in the bunch.

Sincerely
Jeff Decker
