We the undersigned, for the purpose of forming a corporation for profit under the laws of Florida, hereby adopt the following Articles of Incorporation:

Article I - Name

The name of the corporation is EDEN INVESTMENTS OF JACKSONVILLE, INC.

Article II - Nature of Business

The general nature of the business to be transacted by this corporation is:

1. To engage in investing in real estate and personal property.
2. To manufacture, purchase, or otherwise acquire, and to own, mortgage, pledge, sell, assign, transfer, or otherwise dispose of, and to invest in, trade in, deal in and with, goods, wares, merchandise, real and a personal property, and services of every class, kind and description; except that it is not to conduct any business forbidden by law.
3. To conduct business in, have one or more offices in, and buy, hold, mortgage, sell, convey, lease, or otherwise dispose of real and personal property, including franchises, patents, copyrights, trademarks, and licenses, in the State of Florida, and in all other states and countries.
4. To contract debts and borrow money, lease and sell or pledge bonds, debentures, notes, and other evidences of indebtedness, and execute such mortgages, transfers of corporate property, or other instruments to secure the payment of corporate indebtedness as required.
5. To purchase the corporate assets of any other corporation and engage in the same or other character of business.
6. To endorse, purchase, hold, sell, transfer, mortgage, pledge, or otherwise acquire, or dispose of the shares of the capital stock, or any bonds, securities, or other evidence of indebtedness created by any other corporation of the State of Florida or any other state or government, and while owner of such stock to exercise all the rights, powers and privileges of ownership, including the right to vote such stock.
7. To become guarantor or surety for any other person, firm, or corporation for the purpose or transaction whatsoever.
8. To make gifts of its property or cash, either to charitable organizations or otherwise, when deemed in the interest of the corporation.
9. To adopt such pension, profit sharing, stock option, and deferred compensation plans for officers, employees and directors, and to grant such stock options to officers, employees, directors and others as the directors may deem to be in the interest of the corporation.
10. To enjoy all of the powers now or hereafter conferred upon corporations by the statutes and laws of the State of Florida.

The foregoing shall be construed as both objects and powers. The enumeration of specific powers and purposes is not intended to restrict or limit in any way the powers and purposes of this corporation.

Article III - Capital Stock

The maximum number of shares of stock which this corporation is authorized to have outstanding at any one time is 5,000 shares of $.10 par value common stock. The Board of Directors is authorized to issue "Section 1244 Stock," as defined by Section 1244 of the Internal Revenue Code.

Article IV - Initial Capital

Article XI - Preemptive Rights for Shareholders

All shareholders of stock in the corporation shall have preemptive rights.

Article XII

1. This corporation reserves the right to amend or repeal any provision contained in these Articles of Incorporation, and any right conferred upon the stockholders or the directors, but the directors may not alter or amend any By-Law adopted by the stockholders.

2. The initial By-Laws of this corporation shall be adopted by the directors. The By-Laws may be amended from time to time by either the stockholders or the directors, but the directors may not alter or amend any By-Law adopted by the stockholders.

3. Ownership of stock shall not be required to make any person eligible to hold office either as an officer or director of this corporation.

4. The stockholders may, by By-Law provision or by stockholder's agreement, recorded in the minute book, impose such restriction on the sale, transfer, or encumbrance of the stock of this corporation as they may see fit.

5. Any subscriber or stockholder present at any meeting, either in person or by proxy, and any director present in person at any meeting of the Board of Directors shall conclusively be deemed to have received proper notice of such meeting unless he shall make objection at such meeting to any defect or insufficiency of notice.

6. Any contract or other transaction between the corporation and one or more of its directors, or between the corporation and any firm of which one or more of its directors are members or employees, or in which they are interested, or between the corporation and any corporation or association of which one or more of its directors are shareholders, member, director, officer, or employee, or in which they are interested, shall be valid for all purposes, notwithstanding the presence of such director or directors at the meeting of the Board of Directors of the corporation, which acts upon, or in reference to, such contract or transaction, and notwithstanding his or their participation in such action, if the fact of such interest shall be disclosed or known to the Board of Directors and the Board of Directors shall, nevertheless, authorize, approve, and ratify such contract or transaction by a vote of a majority of the directors present, such interested director or directors to be counted in determining whether a quorum is present, but not to be counted in calculating the majority necessary to carry such a vote. This action shall not be construed to invalidate any contract or other transaction which would otherwise be valid under the common and statutory law applicable thereto.

7. The Board of Directors is hereby specifically authorized to make provision for reasonable compensation to its members for their services as Directors, and to fix the basis and conditions upon which such compensation shall be paid. Any director of the corporation may also serve the corporation in any other capacity and receive compensation therefor in any form.

Article XIII

The corporation shall indemnify any director, officer, or employee, or former director, officer, or employee of the corporation, or any person who may have served at its request as a director, officer, or employee of another corporation in which it owns shares of capital stock, or of which it is a creditor, against expenses actually and necessarily incurred by him in connection with the defense of any action, suit or proceeding in which he is made a party by reason of being or having been such director, officer, or employee, except in relation to matters as to which he shall be adjudged in such action, suit, or proceeding to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of duty. The corporation may also reimburse to any director, officer, or employee the reasonable costs of settlement of such action, suit, or proceeding, if it shall be found by a majority of the committee composed of the directors not involved in the matter in controversy (whether of not a quorum) that it was to the interest of the corporation that such settlement be made and that such director, officer, or employee was not guilty of negligence or misconduct. Such rights of indemnification and reimbursement shall not be deemed exclusive of any rights to which such director, officer, or employee may be entitled under any by-law, agreement, vote of stockholders, or otherwise.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 20th day of August, A.D., 1996.

 (SEAL)
