Re: UBR

Date: July 7, 2000

Dear Ms. Fisher,

This letter is being written in regards to the UBR (Uniform Business Report) form that I have requested. On several different occasions I had requested that someone from your office send me the necessary paperwork. Because I hadn't received anything, I instructed my Personal Assistant to call personally and explain my concern.

On 6-6-2000 my assistant Teresa, had spoken with a Mr. Tyrone Scott. Explaining that I hadn't received my papers as of this date, she asked for them once again. Mr. Scott informed her that he would place the papers in the mail on this date. However, it wasn't until the last week of June that I actually received them. Although the cover letter is dated 6-6-2000. I find it very difficult to understand the reasoning behind the actual receipt date.

The obvious problem that has arisen due to the receipt date is the amount now due. My request was placed repeatedly with your office well before the cut-off date of May 31. I am not to blame for whatever the reason is that I didn't get them until the end of June. Therefore, I feel that I should only be responsible to pay for the initial cost. Of which I've enclosed with this letter.

Please feel free to contact my office with any questions regarding the matter.

Kindly,

Ramona Paulino,
Director/CEO
Orlando International Fashion Academy
