Recently, I received a 1997 PROFIT CORPORATION ANNUAL REPORT packet. It was a "2ND NOTICE" and were a bit alarmed because we were unaware we had to file this report and had not received a 1st Notice in the first place.

I, along with my two sons formed a "Corporation" in September of last year wanting to start a business importing and distributing food commodities. Unfortunately, we have been unable to get started. However, we intend to continue in our efforts to find a market for the products.

We file a Monthly Sales & Use Tax Return with the Florida Department of Revenue but, as mentioned before, were unaware we had to file a Profit Corporation Annual Report. Upon receiving this 2nd Notice, we contacted your office (sometimes it's not easy to get through) and talked to a lady to whom we explained our situation. As per instructions received over the telephone, we are submitting a check in the amount of $165.00 in order to continue as an active corporation, along with an explanation of why we had failed to file earlier.

Thank you,

Lizandro Gonzalez
