This letter is in regards of the Annual Report that was presented and paid during the time given (it was sent on April 28, 2005). Subsequently to this date, the Annual Report was returned because the person responsible mistakenly signed in the wrong place. The signed was required in step 13 instead of step 8 where it was signed. Moreover, the Annual Report was returned again signed in the correct place.

Due to what was just mentioned and our concerned about send thing you the Annual Report well written and filled out, we ask to please avoid giving us any additional late fee of $400.00 because the payment of $150.00 was sent during time limit given.

It was not negligence, but yet clarity on where to sign the application.

We hope that this information is useful to you in solving this matter.

Thank you,

Edgar Amaya
