Re: Environmental Health & Safety Services, Inc.

Gentlemen:

Enclosed please find my client's updated UBR for the year 2001, along with my trust account check in the amount of $300.00 for the years 2000 and 2001. In checking with your office, it appears that my client's corporation was involuntarily dissolved for failure to file last years UBR. I have spoken with my client regarding this matter and they indicate that they never received the UBR in the mail last year or this year. They assumed that any documentation from the State would have come to me as Registered Agent and that I would have forwarded it on. However, I did not receive the UBR for the client for either year.

In light of the history of my client's continuous filing since the date of its incorporation, it is clear that they fully intended to keep this corporation active. Therefore, under the circumstances described above, we respectfully requests that the Division of Corporations waive the late penalty filing fee of $600.00 for last year and allow the corporation to be reinstated. Should you need anything further from my office, please don't hesitate to give me a call.

Sincerely,

Koko Head
