RE: 1999 Corporation Fee

I am writing to request that the late fee of $500.00 for registering my corporation be reduced to the initial $150.00 fee for the following reason: The corporation's address, until July 1998, was 841 White Iron Court, Apopka, FL. In July 1998, my wife and I sold our house in Apopka as she was moving to Atlanta to complete her residency training in Internal Medicine/Cardiology at Emory University - mail for her was forwarded to 3450 North Druid Hills Road, Apt. E, Decatur, GA; because I had a business located in Florida, and could not move with her to Atlanta, I moved to Daytona Beach, FL - mail for me and Lefever Aircraft Sales, Inc. was forwarded to 640 North Wild Olive Avenue, Daytona Beach, FL. Since our move, however, I have received her mail and she mine on occasion - and I'm sure some mail has been lost. Why am I telling you this? I never received the initial renewal application for the corporation and thus did not return it on time with the appropriate fee. I have since realized another application - the fee for filing is P.S. now $500.00. Given the change of address and allowing for mistakes - both on my part for not remembering and calling in time to request another application and on the post-office's part for not forwarding my mail accurately I am asking that you accept the enclosed application with the $150.00 fee. As my corporation is in its infancy, the additional $350.00 would cause a considerable financial burden. If this is not acceptable, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey A. Lefever
