Dear Sir, or Madame,

We have just recently taken over the accounting for the above-mentioned corporation. They have been experiencing some difficulties in receiving mail this last year and the problem has been resolved with the postal service. They have just recently received the second notice for their corporation filing and had never received the original form. Please find enclosed payment for their corporation fee, your comprehension in the abatement of any penalties would be appreciated due to their unfortunate situation. If you would refer to prior years filing, you will find that their filings have always been timely.

Sincerely,

W. Scott Brumbaugh
Accountant
