To Whom It May Concern:

Since I started my corporation, I have always made it a practicing habit to pay my bills as I receive them. We have had problems with receiving our mail in our area for several years. Due mostly to constantly changes the postal workers working the areas. Other business in our strip center on a daily basis our exchanges mail with other tenants or returning mail that does not belong to us, but given to us because they choose not to take the time to deliver to the right recipient.

In our business we rely heavily on our mail to be delivered on time to accomodate the needs of our clients.

I apologize for the oversight, but we did not receive the first notice and I just received the second notice on July 2, 2001.

Last year the notice was sent to our 7223 W. Hillsborough Avenue address and this year the address is 6821 W. Hillsborough Avenue, which was an old address of several years ago.

I am asking you to please waiver the $400.00 late fee for an oversight that we have no control over.

I truly thank you in advance.

Sincerely,

Amos Allen
