To Whom it may concern:

I received a notice from the Division of Corporations stating my report has not been filed due to a late fee of $400.00 I paid and mailed my $150.00 fee with check #1555. I called after receiving the notice it was late, and was told my check was not received until June 22. I do not know why it evidently was not received from you by May 1st. I am a small corporation which is not presently doing any business. I can not afford to pay $400 for something I don't feel I should owe, since I did mail my check in time. Last year, I didn't receive a notice it was due until it was already delinquent and paid the extra $400. I hope you will reconsider charging me with a late fee. The form and payment should have arrived on time since it was mailed from Jacksonville, to Tallahassee. I would have driven down to Tallahassee to deliver it if I had thought it would be late. I appreciate your consideration.

Thank you,

Janice L. Pearce
