ARTICLE X
Subchapter S Election: Mandatory Distributions

In the event this corporation elects to be treated as an S Corporation pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), and as long as the corporation's election to be an S Corporation is in effect, this Article X shall apply.

While its election to be an S Corporation is in effect, the corporation shall make to each shareholder a cash distribution at least equal in amount to an amount equal to the estimated federal and state income taxes attributable to such shareholder's pro rata share of the corporation's (i) terms of income (including tax exempt income), loss, deduction or credit, the separate treatment of which could affect the liability for tax of such shareholder and (ii) the non-separately computed income or loss, as more specifically provided in Section 1366(a) of the Code. This estimated tax liability, which shall be computed by the accountant who regularly prepares the corporation's tax returns, shall be computed on the basis of the highest marginal rate applicable to individuals on capital gains and other taxable income for the taxable year in question. Unless prevented from making any distributions under applicable state law, or the shareholders unanimously otherwise agree, the total amount of the minimum mandatory dividend required by this Section shall be declared and paid no later than March 15 of the calendar year following the close of the corporation's taxable year. The total pro rata distributions already made to the shareholders during the applicable taxable year of the corporation shall be taken into account in determining the amount, if any, of additional distributions after the end of such year that must be made by March 15th in order to meet the requirement of this Section.

If the election to be an S Corporation is revoked or terminated, the corporation, during the post-termination transition period, as defined in Section 1377(b) of the Code, shall declare and pay pro rata cash distributions equal, in the aggregate, to the balance of the corporation's accumulated adjustments account, as defined in Section 1368 of the Code, except to the extent the shareholders unanimously agree to the election authorized by Section 1371(e)(2) of the Code or unless prevented from doing so by law.

ARTICLE XI Bylaws

Either the board of directors or the shareholders may adopt, alter, or repeal bylaws; provided, however, (i) the board of directors may not amend or repeal any bylaw adopted by the shareholders if the shareholders specifically provide that the bylaw is not subject to amendment or repeal by the board of directors; and (ii) any bylaw pertaining to "mandatory distributions" may only be amended or repealed with the unanimous consent of the shareholders.

ARTICLE XII Amendments

The corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision in these Articles of Incorporation in the manner prescribed by law, and all rights conferred on shareholders are subject to this reservation.

The undersigned incorporator has executed these Articles of Incorporation this 9 day of October, 1996.
