September 4, 2002

To Whom It May Concern,

I spoke with Laura today and advised her that I had not received the first or second copy of the Annual Corporate Report Forms. This oversight is directly related to a sudden death in my family and subsequent change of address

My wife, Brenda, and I were partners in this business. Brenda handled the paperwork side of the business to include the filing of business related forms. Unfortunately Brenda passed away recently and I moved to a new residence. The forms were never received at my new address.

I understand that there is a possibility of having the penalties related to the late filing of this form waived. A check of our history will show that we have never been late in the past. Please accept this letter as my request to be granted a waiver of those penalties due to the aforementioned circumstances.

— Thank you in advance for your attention to this matter. If I can answer any further questions, please contact me at the above address or phone number.

Sincerely, James A Miller

James A Miller
