Dear Ms. Stacy Prather,

Regarding your letter dated July 29, 1997 explanation of waived fees. I had originally sent in corporation fees of $165.00 on February 28, 1997 (See Document A, copy of check register) however, I was waiting for the check to clear The Bank of Winter Park and it did not. That is when your department sent out the second notice of unpaid fees. On July 17th I called your office and told them what had taken place. Their response was - "Don't worry, this has happened to a lot of people. Just send in the second notice with a new check for $165.00", and that is exactly what I did. Now, I have received a letter dated July 29, 1997, stating that I need to write a letter of explanation regarding this matter. I would like to continue my corporation status and would greatly appreciate your assistance in correcting this matter.

If you need any further information, please feel free to contact me at (407) 843-0043.

Thank you for your immediate response to correct this situation.

Sincerely,

E. Robert Brook
President
