Please submit the hardcopy reports along with the $150 fee for each and a letter stating that you attempted to file the UBRs online unsuccessfully. You may attach a copy of this e-mail if you wish. You will not be charged the late fee.

Since it is evident that RKT, Stormwater & K&R Leasing attempted to file the reports timely utilizing the advantage of the $150 filing fee and for whatever reason the reports were not completely processed, is it possible to file now and have the larger fee waived....

I have researched our records and find that our American Express card was not charged. Please advise how we can rectify this problem. Apparently todays technology got the best of us!

Please help.

RE: Document No. P96000088438

Please find enclosed our hardcopy report for the above corporation. Attached is documentation that we had attempted to file the respective report on April 2, 2001 to take advantage of the $150.00 early filing fee. For whatever reason the transaction was not completed. I have been in contact with the UBR customer service representative, as noted by the attached email, and have been assured that we will not be penalized for this "late" filing since there is evidence that we attempted to file timely.

Therefore, please process this report accordingly and provide the certificate reflecting our status.

Your assistance is greatly appreciated. Should you require additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Robt Roberts
Director
