Ladies and Gentlemen:

as you can see in the application for reinstatement which was sent to the wrong adress and reached us just by chance, there was a change of adress announced, which was realised by your department as shown in box 7, but was not as a consequence of this change sent to the new adress. ( The change was very small, about the suite No only ) This is why we did not receive the filing documents for 2001 and therefore could not file in time. Since it was your mistake, we would not like to be fined for it and ask you to reinstate our company as fast as possible at no additional cost. Enclosed is a check for two years of filing fees ~~$-300.75~~ Please note that there is another change of adress now, this one is somewhat more significant, and should not slip the attention. We hope the next filing documents are getting there.

Yours truly,

Wilhelm Brinkmann
