RE: SPIZZACO INC. P96000092394
FEI: 59-3429628

JANUARY 10, 1999

Dear Florida Department of State

After speaking with Trevor on December 15, 1998, she was understanding of my situation and waived the $600.00 reinstatement filing fee for the above referenced corporations.

Trevor indicated that I would be required a written explanation as well, therefore, I submit this instrument as such.

Recently I wrote to the Florida Department of State to change the Resident Agent due to the fact that the Attorney that set up the corporation, and has been acting agent, has not responded to my letters or calls which led me to change the status of Resident Agent.

In response to my request for change of Registered Agent the Florida Department of State sent me a letter indicating that the corporations must be reinstated and a $600.00 reinstatement filing fee and $150 for the 1998 annual Report must be paid. I was sure that this was a mistake because I had sent my attorney a check for $150.00 to be submitted to you along with the 1998 Annual Report prior to the May 1st filing date.

When I called Thelma Lewis to inquire why I would need to reinstate my corporation she explained to me that apparently my attorney never submitted my check of $150.00 nor the 1998 Report.

I explained to Ms. Lewis that I was very surprised that my attorney never made the submission and asked why I was not previously notified of this fact. She explained to me that you do in fact send out default notices. I assured her that I never received any of the notices and inquired with her as to the address to which the notices had been sent. Ms. Lewis informed me that the letter had been mailed to the following address.

4665-4749 66th St. 64th Ave. N.
Kenneth City, FL 33709

which explains why I never received any notices because is address in unknown to me as it does not apply to any of my corporations or place of business.

Therefore, I am respectfully requesting that my corporations be reinstated and the $600. filing fee be waived.

Please find enclosed a check for $150.00, the 1998 Annual report, and the application for reinstatement for both of the above referenced accounts.

Thank you for your cooperation and understanding.

Sincerely,

Lisa M. Bertrand
