Dear Folks,

I was preparing to pay the 2003 Uniform Business Report, due by September 10, and then I read the smaller print that says our Report was not filed by June 6.

We, along with the business that shares this address, have experienced much trauma with missing mail. A complaint was filed with the Post Office (# OR10068406), at which time we learned of other complaints against the mail carrier. We never received the first Report and can only assume it was never delivered, like much other mail.

I was not employed with Port to Port Marketing when the 2002 Report was filed, so my calendar reflected no reminder for 2003. As I am responsible for paying the company bills, on time, you can imagine my panic.

I telephoned today and spoke with Justin, asking that the late fee be waived and, as advised, have enclosed $150 with the Report. My calendar is also marked for next year. As a small business, the struggle in the aftermath of 911 is tremendous so, thank you.

Sincerely,

Adelle Savage, Secretary

Bill Brown, Owner
