Re: Document# P96000093541

Dear Division of Corporations:

We are in receipt of your postcard reminder regarding the filing of our Corporate Annual Report due May 1, 2005.

Unfortunately, we missed this due date because of an administrative oversight. During this past year we have merged a number of our operating entities. Due to the complexity of this transaction and the disproportionate time it took to accomplish certain form filing dates were missed. The Corporate Annual Report was a case in point.

We have been otherwise timely in our filing commitments with the state and the IRS and respectfully request an abatement of the penalty. Such amount of penalty would create a hardship on our company and employees. I thank you for your consideration and hope you can honor our request.

Sincerely,

Michael Cross
President
