Dear Sir/Madam

I recently talked with one of your representatives on the 488-9000 help line (Jane). I informed her that the only copy of the "Corporation Annual Report" that I have received is the one marked second notice.

Jane informed me that if I were to send in a $150.00 check, along with this letter explaining my situation, that I may possibly be excused from the amount due after May 1st ($550.00)

I am writting you this letter to let you know that had I received any sort of notice informing me that my filing fee was due May 1st ,at $150.00, I would have gladly paid it, as opposed to the $550.00 now due. The only information I received lead me to believe that the filing fee was $550.00 due by 9/30/98, after that date it would be late and $750.00 would be due.

The fact that the May deadline existed was brought to my attention by my accountant who I gave my "filing packet" to along with my July paperwork for my business. After being informed of the original deadline I immediately called your office and spoke with Jane whom suggested that I write you.

I am enclosing a check for $150.00 with the hope that you will understand my situation.

I am also concerned with the fact that I did not receive a first filing notice. Is there something I can do to find out how this occured? Please let me know where I stand on this matter. Thank You

Sincerely,

Craig Miller
