Gentlemen,

July 10th, 2000

We just received this notice in the mail. It says "second notice" although I don't remember receiving the first notice. This may be because of two reasons. We moved our office in December of 1999 and may have misplaced the first notice in the move. Shortly after our move there was a fire in the office building. Although it did not touch us directly we did suffer some smoke damage and the office was in shambles while the management painted and replaced carpeting. I'm not sure if we received it and lost it in all the mess, or we never received it. I hope that we can be forgiven the late penalty. Enclosed find the payment of $150.00. If we still owe the penalty please let us know and we will forward payment immediately.

Thank you,

Michael A. Maldonado
