RE: Uniform Business Report

DATE: October 5, 2001

First of all, let me apologize for the lateness of this Uniform Business Report. I still have not received a notice from you this year but I am now realizing that since I have changed address twice this year, that could be part of the problem. This Corporation is still in full effect and I need for you to change to my now new and permanent address for now. If there are any changes, I will forward to you before it gets too late again. The new address is listed above. Corporate Officer listed- Tomlin Whitmore will remain as President and 100% owner.

I would be very grateful if the additional charges due to lateness, that will be applied for sure by now be waived as we cannot locate any other notices. I have included above our Federal Employer Identification (FEI) number and a check in the amount of $158.75 for fee plus a Certificate of Status. If you need for me to sign anything, please forward a Uniform business report to us to the correct address. Please accept our apology. Thank you for your time.
