Dear People:

We apologize for not been able to file our annual report on time but I was out of the country for 1.5 months and was not aware that somehow we didn't file on time. We never received the first notice over the mail and is the main reason why our new secretary didn't take actions.

We are sending a check for $150,00 apologizing for the delay and any inconveniences, and assuring you that in the future this will not happen again.

Sincerely yours: Rolando Riccio

President
