To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter in response to our phone conversation with one of your specialists. Our company just received our UBR report for year 2002. Our company had been leasing a warehouse from another company in Largo, FL since February 2002. We have had horrendous problems with our mail delivery this past 8 months. Our mail has never come directly to us as it has had to be forwarded through our property lessor, and this has led to mail not being delivered or sent back to be sent to us again. We also have recently moved to another address which has led to more confusion. We do appreciate your patience and understanding. In compliance with the directions your specialist informed us of we are sending in the UBR with the 150.00 fee. Again thanks for your understanding.

Sincerely,

Steven James
