Dear Sir or Madam:

We have been requested by the above-mentioned taxpayer to respond to your notice of filing the 2000 Uniform Business Report (copy attached). The taxpayer was traveling on business quite frequently during the months of January through May and did not receive the first notice of the Business Report.

Please be advised that this is an isolated incident for the taxpayer as should be reflected in the payment history of the taxpayer. Therefore, the taxpayer is enclosing the $150 registration fee. We respectfully request that the Department accept the taxpayer's annual report without assessing the late fee.

Please contact the undersigned with any further correspondence regarding this matter.

Very truly yours

Hyman V. Cohen
