Dear Sirs:

I am in receipt of the enclosed Document #P96000099145 to file for the 2001 tax year registering my corporation, Mailles Shrimp Co., Inc. In checking through my records, I see that I did not file or make payment for the original registration due prior to June 8, 2001. I keep immaculate files on my business and have several other licenses/dues, etc., due throughout the year. I have never had any problems receiving renewal notices, etc., and have always filed these forms with payment in a timely fashion.

This year, however, I did receive papers for the renewal of my Restricted Species license late from the Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission. They explained the delay was due to a statewide computer glitch that dropped all renewal addresses and information. I am wondering if this may have occurred in your division as well. I telephoned the State today in reference to a potential error on my part concerning the fact that I may have sent the form in without payment. Shawn with your agency verified that I did not send it in. Since I am so meticulous with my other records in this regard, I can only assume that I never received the renewal form from your agency.

I am enclosing the one I received a couple of weeks ago with a fee of $150.00, as suggested by Shawn. I trust you will accept my sincere apology for any error that may have occurred on my part in this regard. I also hope you will accept this payment and my renewal form as enclosed. Should you have any problems, please contact me at the address below.

Thanking you in advance,

Sincerely yours,

Mailles Shrimp Co., Inc.
