Dear Sirs,

Re : Hickory Tree Industrial Park Inc. & Elm Industries Inc.

We changed our mailing address last year and forgot to notify you, we did however send all particulars by mail in letter form dated February. However in July you had not cashed our checks so we contacted you by phone and learned that you could not account for this letter, so we sent another letter dated 4th July with two more checks, and all the required detailed therein.

To confirm you had received this second letter, we phoned on the 22nd July and fully outlined the situation to your officer who explained that letters were not acceptable, and would be returned. She then went on to explain how we could download a blank UBR form from your web page, which we duly did, and is returned herewith.

This has of course has resulted in our return being grossly overdue, but we did act in all good faith and would respectfully request you waive the late fee.

Yours Faithfully

Roger Walters, President
