ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF
EDWARD G. URMY, INC.

TO THE SECRETARY OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA:

We, the undersigned, being over the age of eighteen years, desiring to establish a body corporate under and pursuant to the laws of the State of Florida, for the purposes hereinafter stated and set forth, do hereby file in the Office of the Secretary of said State, this our Articles of Incorporation, in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida, and we do hereby set forth and certify as follows:

ARTICLE I: The name of the corporation shall be: EDWARD G. URMY, INC.

ARTICLE II: The objects and purposes for which this corporation is formed are as follows:

(1) To generally engage in, do and perform any enterprise, act or vocation that a natural person might or could do or perform.

(2) To purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise acquire real and personal property of all kinds, character and description, whether improved or unimproved, and any interest therein; to own, hold, control, maintain, manage and develop the same; to erect, construct, maintain, improve, rebuild, enlarge, alter, manage, operate and control office building or buildings for use by the company on lands owned or held by the corporation; to lease or sublet, mortgage, exchange, assign, transfer, convey, pledge or otherwise alienate or dispose of any of such real and personal property and any interest therein.

(3) To purchase, or otherwise acquire, hold, exchange, pledge, hypothecate, sell, deal in and dispose of mortgages, liens, or other encumbrances covering any kind, character or description of real or personal property; to loan money secured by mortgages on real estate.

(4) To purchase or otherwise acquire, hold, sell, exchange, pledge, hypothecate, underwrite, deal in and dispose of stocks, bonds, notes, debentures, or other evidence of indebtedness and obligations and securities of any corporation, company, partnership, syndicate or person, or of any political or administrative subdivision or department thereof, and certificates or receipts of any kind representing any interest in any such stocks, bonds, notes, debentures, evidences of indebtedness, obligations, or securities, to issue its own shares of stock, bonds, notes, debentures, evidences of indebtedness, obligations, securities, certificates, purchased or acquired by it; and allow the owner or holder thereof to exercise all the rights to ownership with respect thereto.

(5) To make loans of money, secured, or unsecured, by endorsement or other collateral as may be permitted by law governing the conduct of a corporation.

(6) To borrow money or raise monies for any of the purposes of the corporation and from time to time make, accept, endorse, execute, and issue promissory notes, drafts, evidences of indebtedness and agreements; to secure the payment thereof and the interest thereon and the performance thereof by mortgage, pledge, conveyance or assignment in trust, of the whole or any part of the assets of the corporation, whether at the time owned or thereafter acquired; and to sell, pledge, or otherwise dispose of such securities or other obligations of the corporation for its corporate purposes.

(7) To enter into and make all necessary contracts and agreements for its business with any person, partnership, association or corporation or of any domestic or foreign state, government or governmental authority or any political or administrative subdivision or department thereof and to perform and carry out, assign, cancel or rescind any such contracts.

(8) To do everything necessary, proper, advisable or convenient for the accomplishment of any of the purposes or the attainment of any of the objects or the furtherance of any of the powers of the corporation, either alone or associated with others, and incidental or pertaining to or growing out of or connected with its business or powers, provided the same be not inconsistent with or contrary to law.

(9) The corporation shall have and enjoy all other rights, powers and privileges conferred upon the corporations by the Constitution and laws of the State of Florida governing the conduct of a corporation.

ARTICLE III: The corporation shall have perpetual existence.

ARTICLE IV: The principal office of the corporation shall be located at 631 Shady Lane, Florida 32804, but the corporation shall have the right to establish and maintain other offices and places of business elsewhere and may transact its corporate business, including the meeting of its Board of Directors and Stockholders, wherever desired.
