To Whom It May Concern:

Attached please find the Uniform Business Report for "Ehrlich & Company, Inc." along with a check in the amount of $150.00 (renewal fee).

The report is late because the Ehrlichs did not receive the form. Possibly it was sent to the previous registered agent who then must have missed to forward the form to the Ehrlichs. I became aware of this situation in April and called in to discuss with one of your officers what to do about this situation, especially since the Ehrlichs live in Germany and mailing things sometimes take quite a while. He asked me to call the same number again and then choose option 1 to request a blank Uniform business report. As soon as I got off the phone with the officer I did so and left my name and address along with my request on your automated system. However, I never received a blank form.

I then contacted your office again on 6/6/00 and one of your officers took the information and sent the form out to me, which I received today.

Luckily the Ehrlichs happen to be in Florida right now for vacation, so that there is no shipping back and forth to Germany necessary.

Looking at these rather extraordinary circumstances I hope that you will be able to accept the $150.00 renewal fee.

Sincerely

Torsten Kraul
