Re: ColinexUSA, Inc. #95000087510
Miami Sweets, Inc. #95000100644

Dear Sirs:

The enclosed copies of your letters dated August 2, 2000 have been received by each of the referenced corporations. Your letters give no attention or consideration to (1) my phone conversation on July 5, 2000, with T. Hampton of your office, and (2) my letter of July 18, 2000 which made reference to the phone conversation of July 5, 2000.

During the course of that conversation I advised T. Hampton that the original mailing of the Annual Report Forms had not been received by either of the two corporations, both of them sharing the same street address. During that conversation T. Hampton told me that the annual fee would remain at $150.00 each due to the fact that they never received the original forms. Based on that we filed both annual Report Forms with a check for $150.00 each with my letter of July 18, 2000, a copy of which is enclosed.

Based on the above I believe you should accept the Report Forms as filed. I would appreciate Receiving a communication advising us that you are in agreement and will accept them as filed.

Very truly yours,

Arnold M. Gotthilf

Colinex USA, Inc. P95000087510 2000 Uniform Business Report
Miami Sweets, Inc. P96000100644 2000 Uniform Business Report

Dear Sirs:

As per our phone conversation with T. Hampton we herewith enclose the current Annual Reports and checks for both of the above referred to corporations.

During the phone conversation of 7/5/00, above referred to, the undersigned told you that the Annual Report forms had not been received by either of the two corporations. In view of the fact that they had not been received T Hampton said that the annual fee for each of them was still $150.00. We are, therefore, enclosing the check for each of the Corporations in that amount.

Very truly yours,

Arnold M. Gotthilf
