ARTICLE X. ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS

The following provisions for the regulation of the business and for the conduct of the affairs of the corporation, and creating, dividing, limiting and regulating the powers of the corporation, its stockholders and directors are hereby adopted as a part of this Certificate of Incorporation.

(a) The Board of Directors from time to time shall determine whether and to what extent, and at what time and places, and under what conditions and regulations, the accounts and books of the corporation or any of them, shall be open to the inspection of the stockholders, and no stockholder shall have any right to inspect any account or document of the corporation, except as conferred by a statute or authorized by the Board of Directors, or by resolution of the stockholders.

(b) No person shall be required to own, hold or control stock in the corporation as a condition precedent to holding an office in this corporation.

(c) The directors may prescribe a method or methods for replacement of lost certificate, and prescribe reasonable conditions by way of security upon the issuance of new certificates thereof.

(d) The original incorporators of the corporation shall have the right upon its organization to assign and deliver their subscriptions of stock, as set forth above, to any other person, or to firms or corporations who may hereafter become subscribers to the capital stock of the corporation, who upon acceptance of such assignment, shall stand in lieu of the original incorporators, and assume and carry out all of the rights, liabilities and duties entailed by said subscriptions, subject to the laws of the State of Florida, and the execution of the necessary instruments of assignments.

(e) No contract or other transaction between the corporation and any other corporation in the absence of fraud, shall be affected or invalidated by the fact that any one or more of the directors of the corporation is or are interested in, or is director or officer or are directors or officers of such other corporation, and any director or directors, individually or jointly, may be party or parties to, or may be interested in any such contract or transaction of the corporation or in which the corporation is interested, and no contract, act or transaction of the corporation with any persons or persons, firm or corporation in the absence of fraud, shall be affected or invalidated by the fact that any director or directors of the corporation is a party or are parties to or interested in such contracts, act or transaction, or are in any way connected with such person or persons, firm or corporation, and each and every person who may become a director of the corporation is hereby relieved from any liability that might otherwise exist from thus contracting with the corporation for the benefit of himself or any firm, association or corporation in which he may be in anyway interested. any director of the corporation may vote upon any contract or other transaction between the corporation and subsidiary or controlled company without regard to the fact that he also is a director of such subsidiary or controlled company.

ARTICLE XL RESTRICTION ON SALE
