Re: Chino-Gia, Inc. 2001 UBR
Document #: P96000101516

On behalf of my client I am requesting that you accept payment of $150.00 for the annual filing fee instead of the $550.00 late filing fee for the reasons discussed below. Please find the annual report and check enclosed.

Based on my previous experience with this related corporation I know that the owner is very conscientious and has always filed returns and reports on a timely basis. If you checked the annual filing for Chino-Gia, Inc. you would see that the annual UBR has always been filed on time.

Many of my clients sign and return the form on their own. My client indicated that she gave my office the form to be completed and based on my history with the owner I am sure that is true. I believe the form was misplaced by a former employee of mine. My office should have called Chino-Gia, Inc. to verify that the form was filed, but the proper procedures were not in place, so it was overlooked. Unfortunately, with the tax season workload occasionally a form gets missed and that is what has happened here.

For these reasons, I hope that you abate the $400 penalty for filing late. If you need any additional information please contact my office. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Janet L. Sherman, CPA
